GOA's MARINE PRODUCTS MAY SOON REACH WEST AFRICA

Goan seafood is increasingly sought after on account of its nutritious value as well as its freshness. World Trade Center Pune started this enquiry for Export of Marine Products to West Africa and World Trade Center Goa responded ably by gaining support for this export opportunity. Accordingly, three companies from Goa responded to the call for supply of six refrigerated marine containers per month comprising four containers of Mackerel and two Containers of Sardines. The companies that responded were Pinto Global Impex -ably represented by Mr. Gabriel Pinto and Pica -Peixe enterprises and Lawrenceburg enterprises Goa ably represented by Mr. Lawrence.

The webinar was organised on September 7, 2023.
